

Assignment 2: Final Research Project

Final Project: Developing a Literature Review into a Full Research Project

1. Overview

This project is a direct extension of Assignment 1 (Literature Review).

Students are required to transform their previous work into a complete research project.

- In Assignment 1: You reviewed literature and identified a research gap.
- In this project: You will develop a full research study
- The final outcome should resemble a mini research paper.

2. Objectives

- Transform the research gap into a clear problem statement
- Design a complete research methodology
- Apply or propose data collection and analysis
- Present results and discussion

3. Requirements (Based on Assignment 1)

- Use the same topic
- Build on previous literature (with possible additions)
- Refine the identified research gap
- Avoid plagiarism. Proper citation is required.

4. Project Sections & Grading (20 Marks)

Section/criteria	Marks	Description
1. Introduction & Problem Statement	2	A clear and well-defined problem statement based on Assignment 1
2. Refined Literature Review	4	An improved and well-structured literature review that demonstrates strong coherence between ideas and includes at least 15–18 relevant and credible academic references.
3. Research Questions / Hypotheses	2	Clear, specific, and measurable research questions and/or hypotheses.

4. Research Methodology	4	Appropriate research design, type, and clear justification of the selected methodology.
5. Data Collection Implementation	2	Appropriate design of data collection tools (e.g., survey, interview, or dataset).
6. Data Analysis & Results	2	Appropriate data analysis and/or logically derived expected results.
7. Discussion	2	Clear interpretation of results, critical discussion, and strong linkage to relevant literature.
8. Limitations & Ethics	1	Identification of study constraints and consideration of ethical issues.
9. Conclusion & Contribution	1	Clear summary of the study and its key contributions.
